

Making our Own Maths Board Games

For homework the Y5s were asked to design and make a maths boardgame. The children came up with a wide variety of ideas that developed different maths concepts. We had great fun playing each others games and evaluating them.

