

LEGO HEROES!

St Peter's Lego team returned victorious from the regional finals and then went on to win a top prize at the England and Ireland national Lego finals in Bristol. It was a monumental effort from the group who won first place in the project section with their book that promoted love for animals.