

St Peter's Lego Team had another great year and managed to finish second in the North East regional event. A huge thank you to Anglo American, AV Dawson and Suttons for supporting the children with their project surrounding the logistics industry. The children managed 260 points on the robot game, which again was second place out of the seven schools competing.