

CLASSROOM TEACHER

Pay Scale: M1 – M4

Number of Hours: 32.5
To commence: 1st September 2022
Tenure: Fixed Term 31st August 2023

The Governing Body wish to recruit an excellent classroom practitioner. We will welcome applications from both NQTs and more experienced teachers for a post in Key Stage 2.

'St Peter's is an inclusive, ambitious and friendly school. As a result, pupils enjoy their time here. Pupils' attendance rates are high and exclusions are non-existent. The promotion of Christian values lies at the heart of everyone's work, including the pupils. In school these are represented by the four values of truthfulness, friendship, courage and responsibility. They provide the bedrock on which the superb relationships across the school, pupils' exemplary personal qualities, admirable behaviour and good achievements are built.' OFSTED 2017

Our School can offer:

- A friendly, caring and supportive staff where team work is valued.
- Dedication to professional and personal development.
- An exciting and stimulating learning environment.
- Children who are polite, well behaved and keen to achieve.

The successful candidate will:

- Have a secure knowledge and understanding of effective teaching and learning, including a range of assessment strategies.
- Establish high expectations of pupils and their distinctive needs.
- Have a natural empathy and love of educating children.
- Take an active part in the life of a Christian school.
